

The weekly newsletter from NHS Networks

Top stories

Services for people with neurological conditions: progress review

Services and outcomes for people with neurological conditions need further improvement.

Read more »

New 2015/16 flu fighter resources

NHS Employers has produced a number of resources to help plan and implement staff flu vaccination campaign.

Read more »

Most people are harmed by alcohol – whether they drink or not

A new report reveals the impact of alcohol on other people's safety and sheds light on a neglected area of alcohol-related harm.

Read more »

The General Practice Awards deadline extended again

Nominations for the General Practice Awards have been extended to Friday 31 July.

Read more »

Taking the mystery out of media relations

For NHS organisations, being able to explain clearly what you do and why you do it is vital, and that means working with the media.

Read more »

Patient safety alert on ambulance dispatch and satellite navigation systems

NHS England has issued a patient safety alert to ensure ambulance satellite navigation systems are up to date.

Read more »

New rules about tobacco, e-cigarettes and smoking: 1 October 2015

The Department of Health has published guidance on the changes to the laws on tobacco, e-cigarettes and smoking that come into force on 1 October 2015.

Read more »

Fetal anomaly screening: programme handbook

Public Health England has brought together all the guidelines and recommendations that relate to the NHS fetal anomaly screening programme (FASP) in a single handbook.

Read more »

The new health and social care economy

This report examines the new health and social care economy in the north-west of England, spanning Sefton, Liverpool and Greater Manchester.

Read more »

Local Healthwatch governance toolkit for commissioners

The Local Government Association has produced a self-assessment toolkit to support local Healthwatch and its commissioners to establish successful governance for an effective local Healthwatch organisation.

Read more »

NICE recommends anticoagulants over aspirin for stroke prevention

Adults with atrial fibrillation (AF) should be prescribed newer medications instead of aspirin for the prevention of stroke, says NICE.

Read more »

Health check for CCGs worried about legacy contracts

CCGs with delegated authority for commissioning services from general practice could soon find that out-of-date and inconsistent contracts are getting in the way of progress.

Read more »

Making NHS patient feedback more inclusive

Updated guidance has been published to help make the NHS's biggest patient feedback tool, the friends and family test, more inclusive.

Read more »

CQC publishes examples of outstanding practice in new online toolkit for GPs

The Care Quality Commission has published a collection of examples of outstanding practices that their inspectors have found in GP surgeries across England.

Read more »

Consultation launched on joint targeted area inspections

Local agencies that are failing to work together effectively to protect vulnerable children will be held to account by new joint inspections, it has been announced.

Read more »

New appointments to tackle race equality across the NHS

NHS England is pleased to announce two senior appointments to ensure employees from black and ethnic minority (BME) backgrounds have equal access to career opportunities and receive fair treatment in all NHS workplaces.

Read more »

Public perceptions of the NHS and social care: winter 2014

This report provides the results from an Ipsos MORI survey of public perceptions of the NHS and social care services.

Read more »

How is the NHS performing?

Rising costs, cuts in the payments they receive for treating patients and increasing demand makes 2015/16 the most challenging year for NHS providers this century, according to the King's Fund latest quarterly monitoring report.

Read more »

Realise the potential of your whole team

With the pace of change in the NHS, teams are constantly changing and facing new challenges. PCC's personal and team development programme can support you to get the best from your team.

Read more »

People with learning disabilities over-prescribed psychiatric drugs

Public Health England study finds people with learning disabilities are regularly prescribed psychiatric drugs without a recorded diagnosis.

Read more »

Food for thought: promoting healthy diets among children and young people

This report sets out the measures needed to help promote healthier diets among children and young people.

Read more »

The Royal College of Nursing response to the Nursing and Midwifery Council \(NMC\) evaluation of the revalidation pilots

Revalidation is a process being introduced by the NMC that all nurses and midwives will be required to undertake every three years, in order to renew their registration.

Read more »

NHS Financial Temperature Check

Healthcare Financial Management Association has published the latest in a regular series of briefings reporting the results from a survey of NHS finance directors.

Read more »

Working with Autism: GPs' perspectives

Autism Spectrum Disorder has been identified as a clinical priority by the RCGP. As part of the College's efforts to improve primary care provision for this disorder, they have collaborated with colleagues at the Centre for Research in Autism and Education (CRAE) at UCL to design a knowledge and attitudes survey for GPs in the UK.

Read more »

Project and programme management support

Our adviser team has extensive experience in primary care contracting and commissioning. We can provide project managers for contract and service reviews, to support the development of federations, primary care transformation projects and to support procurement of new primary care services.

Read more »

Developing outcomes-based indicators

This event, for commissioners who already get the point of outcomes based commissioning, explains the next steps: how to develop indicators to measure services against the goals set for them.

Read more »

Jane Ellison writes to NHS partners about FGM summer vigilance

Jane Ellison, minister for Public Health, has written to all NHS Trust chief executives, directors of public health and chairs of Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs) across England.

Read more »

Public Health England launches nationwide breast cancer campaign

Public Health England has launched a nationwide 'Be Clear on Cancer' campaign aimed at women aged 70 and over to drive awareness of the risk of breast cancer amongst this age group and to increase their knowledge of lesser-known breast cancer symptoms.

Read more »

Psychological wellbeing and work: improving outcomes for people with common mental health problems

This briefing summarises key findings and recommendations from a report that explores proposals to improve employment and health outcomes for people with common mental health problems.

Read more »

Health and safety competencies for NHS managers

This new guidance highlights the core skills managers at all levels need to manage health and safety in the workplace effectively.

Read more »

Vital sight loss support for blind vision impaired ex-Service men and

women

Blind Veterans UK's No One Alone campaign is calling for healthcare professionals to ensure they signpost blind and vision impaired ex-Service men and women to vital sight loss services and support.

Read more »

Primary medical care contracting - effective decision making under co-commissioning arrangements

As NHS England seeks further applications from CCGs who want to assume more responsibility for primary care under delegated and joint commissioning arrangements, PCC is running an event to explore how primary care commissioning committees work for joint and delegated arrangements.

Read more »

Social care grant determinations for 2015 to 2016

These grant determinations set out how much money the Department of Health will pay local authorities for social care grants in 2015 to 2016.

Read more »