

NHS NETWORKS weekly news stories:

09:58am, 25 June 2021

Leading positive workplace cultures

The NHS Long Term Plan refers to inclusive and compassionate leadership. Participants will be encouraged to consider how their own behaviour influences the workplace culture and ways they can develop the leadership skills to create and maintain a positive and resilient culture.

09:56am, 25 June 2021

NHS System Oversight Framework 2021/22

These documents describe NHS England and NHS Improvement's approach to oversight of Integrated Care Systems (ICSs), CCGs and trusts for 2021/22.

09:55am, 25 June 2021

Covid vaccination sites 'Grab A Jab' weekend

Hundreds of walk-in NHS Covid-19 vaccination sites will be operating this weekend with any adult able to turn up and 'grab a jab'.

09:54am, 25 June 2021

Advertising rules to help tackle childhood obesity

Following a public consultation, regulations will come into force at the end of next year to introduce a 9pm watershed for advertisements of foods high in fat, salt and sugar (HFSS).

09:42am, 25 June 2021

Chlamydia screening to focus on reducing harm

The National Chlamydia Screening Programme is changing to put a greater emphasis on reducing the harm of untreated infections on young women's reproductive health.

09:41am, 25 June 2021

Impact of NHS administration on patient care

High-quality NHS admin processes can improve patient experience, help to address inequalities and promote better care.

10:01am, 24 June 2021

Mental health and wellbeing at work

This session is designed to give insight and understanding to managers within the healthcare sector around how to support the people they manage, in identifying and addressing mental health concerns in the workplace or triggered by the workplace.

10:00am, 24 June 2021

Research shows 2 million people may have had long Covid

Over 2 million people in England are thought to have had one or more Covid-19 symptoms lasting at least 12 weeks according to one of the largest studies of the virus funded by the government.

09:59am, 24 June 2021

Graduate of Family Nurse Partnership programme meets with Duchess of Cambridge

The Duchess of Cambridge has hosted an event to launch their new Royal Foundation Centre for Early Childhood and invited a graduate of Public Health England's Family Nurse Partnership (FNP) programme.

09:57am, 24 June 2021

Care for people with a learning disability

This month's insight report published by CQC focuses on care for people with a learning disability.

09:56am, 24 June 2021

Challenges and opportunities in new era of healthcare digitisation

A report by the National Association of Primary Care (NAPC) highlights what the future holds for digital healthcare based on lessons learnt from their national programme and the rapid take up of technology during the Covid-19 pandemic.

09:54am, 24 June 2021

#NotOK: mental health support for young people with cancer

This report finds that young people with cancer are unable to access specialist mental health support in parts of the UK, putting them at risk of lifelong trauma.

09:53am, 24 June 2021

Supporting people with arthritis waiting for surgery

This report calls on local health systems to implement a package of support to improve the experiences of people with arthritis who are waiting for surgery.

10:01am, 23 June 2021

Turning conflict into collaboration

Differences of opinion, interpretation and values can lay the foundations of misunderstanding, confrontation and conflict. As more cross-organisation and cross-sector working develops the circumstances for conflict to arise increase.

09:59am, 23 June 2021

Weight Management Enhanced Service

The Weight Management Enhanced Service encourages practices to develop a supportive environment for clinicians to engage with patients living with obesity about their weight and provides up to £20m funding in 2021/22 for referrals to weight management services.

09:56am, 23 June 2021

Tackling health inequalities: a framework for allied health professionals

The King's Fund worked with allied health professionals (AHPs) from across the UK to develop a framework to support any AHP to think through and understand their contribution to tackling health inequalities, whatever their role.

09:54am, 23 June 2021

Socially excluded older people insights from professionals

Age UK and The Salvation Army, together with people who are socially excluded and key professionals, explore some of the challenges older people face when accessing support.

09:51am, 23 June 2021

Enhanced health in care homes team training

As part of the implementation of the enhanced health in care homes framework, CCGs received funding to develop effective multidisciplinary teams.

09:50am, 23 June 2021

Funding to strengthen clinical research delivery

Patients across the UK will benefit from a super-charged clinical research system, backed by over £64 million of dedicated investment, which will save lives across the country.

09:55am, 22 June 2021

Employment law update, including Covid-19 considerations

This workshop supports managers in understanding current employment law including considerations relevant to Covid-19.

09:51am, 22 June 2021

Boost for young people's mental health services

An extra £40 million has been allocated to address the Covid impact on children and young people's mental health and enhance services across the country.

09:50am, 22 June 2021

Enhanced service specification: Long Covid

This enhanced service specification aims to support general practice in managing Long Covid.

09:48am, 22 June 2021

Social media platforms support Covid-19 vaccine drive

Leading social media platforms popular with young people including Snapchat, Reddit, TikTok, and YouTube, are supporting the vaccination programme by encouraging their users to get coronavirus jabs. Snapchat users can use NHS stickers, a filter, and later this month, an augmented reality lens that all read: 'I've had my vaccine' for UK users to share on their accounts.

09:46am, 22 June 2021

Data strategy to support delivery of care

The way data is used across health and care sectors is set to be transformed, giving patients control of their health data and enabling staff to save more lives through improved care and treatment.

09:44am, 22 June 2021

Adult social care

This report concludes that while there have been many White Papers, Green Papers, consultations, independent reviews and commissions promised by governments of all political persuasions, reform has not yet occurred.

09:43am, 22 June 2021

Moral distress for UK doctors

This pan-profession survey of UK doctors found that 78 per cent of respondents said they could identify with the term 'moral distress'.

10:28am, 21 June 2021

HealthCoachPlus programme

The HealthCoachPlus programme is a two day virtual training programme designed to provide healthcare professionals in primary care, secondary care and in the wider community and voluntary sectors with the knowledge, skills and confidence to incorporate health coaching techniques in their role.

10:26am, 21 June 2021

Social care infection prevention and control resources

The Department for Health and Social Care (DHSC) has adapted the NHS 'Every Action Counts' infection prevention and control resources for social care settings.

10:24am, 21 June 2021

Ethnic health inequalities

This report, commissioned by the NHS Race and Health Observatory, represents one of many steps needed to help understand the factors that shape race inequality in health, including the forces of structural racism and discrimination, and to begin to respond to them with impactful changes.

10:20am, 21 June 2021

Digitally excluded people's experiences of remote GP appointments

This report investigates the barriers to accessing digital and remote care, drawing on the experiences of people who experienced digital exclusion during the pandemic.

10:18am, 21 June 2021

NICE guidance on shared decision-making

This guideline and standards framework will help clinicians improve conversations with patients and carers and includes recommendations on using aids and tools to help people engage with shared decision-making.

10:14am, 21 June 2021

CVD PREVENT to support primary care

CVD PREVENT, a national audit supported by NHS Benchmarking Network and Public Health England, will enable GPs and primary care colleagues to identify priorities for improvement in cardiovascular disease prevention including inequalities in the management of high risk factors

NHS NETWORKS weekly editor's blog entries:

16:26pm, 24 June 2021

North East Essex integrated discharge single point of access - implementing the Coronavirus Act 2020 and Covid-19 hospital discharge service requirements

The blog this week is from Frank Sims, chief executive of Anglian Community Enterprise and shares learning on collaboration and redesign to support hospital discharge.
