

From: NHS Networks <no-reply@pcc-cic.org.uk>

Date: 31 May 2020 at 05:47:44 BST

To: paulgoulbourne9@icloud.com

Subject: NHS Networks new content summary

NHS NETWORKS weekly news stories:

11:29am, 29 May 2020

Campaign to encourage people to seek care

Remote consultations are one way in which GP practices have changed the way they work to ensure people can get expert care and advice in a safe way throughout the COVID-19 pandemic.

11:27am, 29 May 2020

Updated risk assessment guidance

Risk assessments for staff, produced by NHS Employers, provides more detailed support to allow NHS line managers to address areas in one to one conversations with employees who may be at higher risk of developing symptoms leading to Covid-19.

11:22am, 29 May 2020

COVID rehab services

The NHS Seacole Centre at Headley Court, Surrey, will provide specialist rehabilitation care for patients who are recovering from Covid-19 in the Surrey region, with staff welcoming the first patients over the course of this week.

11:20am, 29 May 2020

Online and telephony changes to improve patient communications

This case study looks at how a central-Peterborough GP practice has overhauled the way it delivers services during the COVID-19 response, investing in new online and telephony systems to keep in touch with its patients.

11:18am, 29 May 2020

Returning NHS waiting times to 18 weeks for routine treatment

Returning to 'normal' levels of activity is expected to take some time and, even before Covid-19, there were substantial challenges with waiting times.

11:16am, 29 May 2020

Heatwave Plan for England

The Heatwave Plan for England remains unchanged for summer 2020.

11:00am, 28 May 2020

Taking control of stress - building your resilience

Most of us will suffer work-related stress, especially at the current time - and the problem is most acute for public sector staff, particularly those in the NHS.

10:59am, 28 May 2020

Government launches NHS Test and Trace service

From today, anyone who tests positive for coronavirus will be contacted by NHS Test and Trace and will need to share information about their recent interactions.

10:57am, 28 May 2020

Voluntary standards for new practice nurses

The Queen's Nursing Institute has published new voluntary standards of education and practice for nurses who are embarking on a career in general practice nursing.

10:53am, 28 May 2020

Occupational therapists support families preparing for a return to school

School closures have caused massive disruption to the lives of children and families during the COVID-19 crisis.

10:51am, 28 May 2020

Mental health apps to support children and young people

A team across NHSX, NHS Digital, NHS England and NHS Improvement are working to identify a number of digital tools to support children and young people who are experiencing increased mental health needs as a result of COVID-19.

11:40am, 27 May 2020

Selected NHS patients to access coronavirus treatment remdesivir

The anti-viral drug remdesivir will be made available to patients meeting certain clinical criteria to support their recovery in hospital.

11:38am, 27 May 2020

The Covid-19 pandemic, financial inequality and mental health

This briefing discusses the mental health effects of financial inequalities in the context of the Covid-19 pandemic.

11:36am, 27 May 2020

Government significantly boosts UK PPE supply with more than 100 new deals

The government has signed deals with more than 100 new suppliers from around the world as well as ramping up domestic production to help meet demand for PPE.

11:34am, 27 May 2020

Effective communication: How to deliver your message with clarity and impact

Great leaders understand how to communicate. Well communicated messages build trust, promote understanding and create confidence - the essential conditions for leading change and meeting challenges.

09:57am, 26 May 2020

£300 million additional funding for local authorities to support new test and trace service

Local authorities will be central to supporting the new test and trace service in England, with the government providing a new funding package of £300 million.

09:56am, 26 May 2020

Girlguiding research briefing: early findings on the impact of Covid-19 on girls and young women

This report summarises research of 7,000 members and reveals how girls and young women aged 4-18 in the UK are coping with the changes to their daily lives during the Covid-19 pandemic.

09:54am, 26 May 2020

Improved deal means new treatment for a type of advanced breast cancer can be recommended by NICE

Draft guidance published by NICE recommends atezolizumab for treating people with a type of breast cancer, called triple negative breast cancer, that has spread to other parts of the body.

09:53am, 26 May 2020

Joint statement on personalised approaches to care and treatment

Last week NHS England and NHS Improvement came together with a range of leading thinkers from the disabled rights movement, voluntary sector organisations, and specialist clinical directors to discuss the importance of ensuring everyone has the opportunity for their needs, wishes and preferences to be considered.

09:51am, 26 May 2020

Royal Pharmaceutical Society summit on future of pharmacy

The Royal Pharmaceutical Society (RPS) will bring organisations with a stake in pharmacy's future together digitally on 9 June to set out a plan for the future for the profession.
